

The Romagna coast explained: water quality, Blue Flags and over 1,100 bathing establishments

On romagnatourism.it, everything you need to know before going for a swim, from the Lidi di Comacchio to Pesaro.

What is the water like? Who monitors it? What does that flag mean? Can I bring my dog? These are the questions visitors to the Riviera ask, and Romagna Tourism brings them together on a single page, The Sea, along with the complete list of bathing establishments.

Water and regulations

- The quality of bathing water according to official Arpae analyses: in Emilia-Romagna, 82 out of 98 waters are of excellent quality (2022-2025 seasons).
- Municipalities with the 2026 Blue Flag.
- Lifeguard flags, rescue service hours and beach regulations.
- What happens after a heavy storm, when the municipality may prohibit bathing for a few hours.
- Where to go to the beach with your dog.

Bathing establishments

Over 1,100 bathing establishments in 23 locations, from the Lidi di Comacchio to Rimini, Riccione, Cattolica, Pesaro and Fano: establishment number, address, website, services, wheelchair accessibility and pets allowed, with the location on the map.

And more

Boats and sea trips, rentals, seaside spas and free beaches: all connected, in 11 languages.
