

romagnatourism.it launches: all of Romagna on a single site, in 11 languages and updated in real time

Events, trains, flights, traffic, museums, beaches and farm stays across 185 municipalities, from the coast to the Apennines. Free for visitors and local businesses.

romagnatourism.it is now online, the new tourism portal dedicated to Romagna. An editorial project by Passione Turismo di Bacchini Alessandro, a Faenza-based entrepreneur in tourism and transport, who has brought together on a single site what today a tourist must search for across dozens of different pages.

What visitors find on the site

- Events: over 1,400 appointments in the calendar, more than 460 in the next 30 days alone, from food festivals and village fêtes to concerts, exhibitions and guided tours.
- Getting around in real time: departure and arrival boards for 32 railway stations in Romagna, airport flights, buses, traffic on main roads, restricted traffic zones and car parks.
- Where to go: 185 municipalities described town by town, museums, castles, monuments, viewpoints, spas, parks, footpaths and cycle routes with maps.
- Where to stay and eat: nearly 400 farm stays, over 1,100 beach establishments, markets, PDO and PGI products, wine routes and Romagna cookery courses.
- Discovering Romagna: people born or who lived in Romagna, curiosities and legends, dialects town by town, crafts such as Faenza ceramics, rust-printed fabrics and Ravenna mosaics.
- Useful services: tourist offices with opening times, weather, health, roadside assistance, left luggage and an assistant that answers visitors' questions.

Designed for foreign tourists

The site speaks 11 languages: Italian, English, German, French, Spanish, Portuguese, Dutch, Polish, Norwegian, Swedish and Danish, the languages of the foreign guests most present in Romagna. In all, over 34,000 pages, which update themselves: events, trains, flights and traffic change several times a day.

An opportunity for the area

Listing on the portal is free for local businesses: farm stays, beach establishments, museums, guides, hire services, workshops and associations. Those who cannot find their business can report it directly from the site, on the page "List your business": romagnatourism.it/inserisci-attivita

I wanted anyone arriving in Romagna, from Milan or from Oslo, to find in one place everything they need to experience the area: what's happening today, how to get there and what not to miss. Romagna deserves to be told well, and in all the languages of its guests.

Romagna Tourism at a glance

Romagna Tourism (romagnatourism.it) is an independent travel portal about Romagna, online since 16 October 2026. It describes 185 towns from Bologna to Pesaro, from the sea to the Apennines, in 11 languages: the events calendar, museums, castles and monuments, nature, cycle routes and long walks, food and local products, history, famous people and dialects, together with practical services updated in real time such as trains, flights, buses and traffic. It is an editorial project of Passione Turismo di Bacchini Alessandro: it informs visitors, sells no packages and uses no cookies.
