

Health, emergency services and useful numbers: what you need to know on holiday in Romagna, town by town

On romagnatourism.it: A&E, out-of-hours doctors, defibrillators, roadside assistance, tourist offices and weather, in 11 languages.

Nobody wants to think about it on holiday, but when you need it, you need to find it quickly. That's why romagnatourism.it, the independent travel portal about Romagna, dedicates part of the site to practical services, organised town by town and written in the 11 languages of its visitors.

Health and emergency services

- The Health page lists, town by town, emergency numbers, out-of-hours doctors, hospitals and publicly accessible defibrillators, including those available round the clock.
- Roadside assistance: who to call in case of breakdown, recovery vehicles, 24-hour tyre services and garages in every town.
- Winter tyres and chains: the national calendar and road-by-road rules in Romagna, with the fines that apply.

Information before you travel

- 85 tourist offices with opening times and an "open now" indicator.
- Local weather forecasts, from the coast to the Apennines.
- Restricted traffic zones and car parks in historic centres, with rules for disabled badge holders.
- 33 left luggage facilities on the map, with distances from stations.

Every town has its own page

From the Town by town section you can open the page for each of the 185 towns covered: what to see, interesting facts, useful numbers, where to stay and eat, upcoming events. A page to save on your phone before you set off.

The site uses no cookies and requires no registration: just open it and use it, including on your phone, where you can save it to your home screen like an app.

Romagna Tourism at a glance

Romagna Tourism (romagnatourism.it) is an independent travel portal about Romagna, online since 16 October 2026. It describes 185 towns from Bologna to Pesaro, from the sea to the Apennines, in 11 languages: the events calendar, museums, castles and monuments, nature, cycle routes and long walks, food and local products, history, famous people and dialects, together with practical services updated in real time such as trains, flights, buses and traffic. It is an editorial project of Passione Turismo di Bacchini Alessandro: it informs visitors, sells no packages and uses no cookies.
